GIANTS VICTORS IN DUEL OF PITCHERS

STRANGER SLEPT IN HOUSE WHERE WOMAN WAS SLAIN

Room Supposed Empty Found to Have Been Regularly Occupied by Unknown Person—Important Batch of Letters Discovered.

New and important clues were discovered to-day in the mystery of the murder of Mrs. Alice Kinnam and the detectives are working with renewed hope. A search of the old Stenton mansion to-day revealed letters indicating that Mrs. Kinnam had been threatened with death by letter and that a man had been occupying a room on the top floor of the house previous to the murder.

Up to this afternoon the aged Mrs. Stenton had succeeded in balking all attempts of the detectives to secure her daughter's correspondence. Capt. Price circumvented her to-day and unearthed a box full of old letters and letters of recent date which proved that Mrs. Kinnam had a number of admirers.

Several of the letters were in a reproachful strain. One contained threats of violence. The writers of the letters can be traced. One of the epistles was mailed in Philadelphia.

In a room on the top floor of the house the detectives found a bed that had recently been occupied. In the room was an article of man's apparel which was confiscated by the police. Capt. Price believes that the murderer slept in this room last Thursday night and Friday and killed Mrs. Kinnam after a quarrel Friday evening when he was about to leave under the cover of darkness.

Capt. Brennan, of the Tremont station, talked to-day about having Mrs. Stenton hypnotized and forcing her to tell the story of the crime as she knows it. The hypnotism suggestion is not taken seriously.

Mrs. Brown, the trained nurse who has been caring for Mrs. Stenton since the murder of her daughter, said to-day that the actions of the aged woman last night were peculiar.

"She left her bed about 1 o'clock this morning," said Mrs. Brown, "and for an hour wandered about the deserted rooms of the house. She had no light and as she plodded through the darkness she stumbled over sills and fell into door casings. She would look out of all windows and occasionally would moan. I followed her and finally got her to go back to bed.

"She was up at 4 o'clock again and out on the front porch with a big bundle of newspapers. She read many accounts of the murder and then tore up the papers and threw them down on the lawn. Then she picked up the papers and, after failing to patch them together, threw them down on the grass again and got a large watering pot, with which she sprinkled them.

"At breakfast she quarreled with me because I wanted three boiled eggs. She watches everything I eat and is very careful about what she eats. She says she is afraid she might be poisoned."

Mrs. Stenton was under the close watch of Policemen Atkins, of the Tremont station, all yesterday afternoon and part of last night. With the policeman and the old woman was Burton W. Gibson, attorney for the old woman. Mrs. Stenton seemed to feel that she was under guard. In the late evening she called to the policeman and lawyer: "Rather warm. Let's go to the porch and get air."

She walked to the porch with a step as agile as that of a woman half her age, and she was cordial and her manner was pleasant.

SEEKS TO ANNUL MARRIAGE OF TERRANOVA GIRL

Her Husband Instructs His Lawyer to Bring Suit at Once.

Josephine Terranova, recently acquitted by a jury of two fathers on the charge of murdering her uncle, will next appear as defendant in the suit brought by her husband, Giuseppe Terranova, for annulment of their marriage. The young husband has placed his case in the hands of Rufus Perry, a negro lawyer, of No. 35 Fulton street, Brooklyn, with instructions to sue it to a finish.

It was the husband's attitude when he learned of the girl's treatment by the Rigas that caused her to kill them. Giuseppe cast her off, and she thought the only way to clear herself in his eyes was to slay those who wronged her. Ever since then Giuseppe has refused to consider any proposition looking to a reunion.

Josephine, after being paroled in custody of her counsel yesterday, was taken out of town. She is said to be living with an American woman who has taken a great interest in her case.

Where she is, her counsel, ex-Judge Palmieri, refuses to say. Lawyer Perry said to-day that he will have a conference with Mr. Palmieri and attempt to get out the girl's address so that he may serve the papers in the action. In the event of Palmieri's refusal to make her whereabouts known, service will be obtained by publication.

Since the tragedy young Giuseppe has been living with his mother at 80 St. Shepherds avenue, Brooklyn. He was married to Josephine by a civil service Jan. 20 and three weeks later by a religious ceremony. He is seeking an annulment on the ground of fraud. The chances are, according to Lawyer Perry, that she will not oppose the suit and will welcome the opportunity to break the ties.

WOMAN IN FIT OF INSANITY DASHES ACID ON HUSBAND

Victim Badly Burned and Doctors Say He Will Probably Die.

ATTACKED WHILE IN BED

Woman Had Acted Queerly, but Husband Thought the Trouble Nervousness.

PATERSON, N. J., June 13.—Max Hauser, a wealthy grocer of this city, was probably fatally burned at his home, No. 21 Market street, to-day when his wife, who is supposed to be insane, dashed a quantity of potash solution over him as he lay in bed. The man is now in the General Hospital in a critical condition.

Mrs. Hauser arose about 7 o'clock this morning and went to a dresser from which she took the potash, and before Hauser could restrain her she had dashed the contents of the glass over his face, head and breast. His cries were heard by neighbors, who rushed into the house and found the man writhing in agony on the bed and Mrs. Hauser in another room.

Word was sent immediately to a nearby doctor, but he could do little for the man, and the ambulance from the General Hospital took him to that institution, where the doctors examined him, but said there was only a small chance of his recovery. If he does live, they declare he will be blind and badly disfigured for life.

Mrs. Hauser had been acting queerly for some time past and her husband was advised by relatives to have her sent to an institution, but he refused, saying that he never would leave her. He said she was only suffering from nervousness, which would soon pass.

She was awake when his wife got out of bed this morning and watched her when she opened the door and took the potash, and before he could get out of bed to stop her she had dashed the acid over him.

The woman was removed from the house and is now in the insane ward of St. Joseph's Hospital in a strait jacket. She will be examined and in all probability sent to some institution for the insane.

Hauser is about forty-five years of age and one of the best known business men in this city. He had a big store here and did a good business. His wife is about the same age. They have no children.

COP'S REWARD FOR REPORT ON GRAFT.

Policeman James A. Donoghue, who was instrumental in bringing about the arrests of a policeman and a reporter alleged to be "selling promotion" in the Police Department, was to-day appointed roundsmen by Commissioner Bingham.

This is looked upon as the reward Donoghue has received for his work. He was passed over many times by Mayor Adams and his name was taken out of the list of roundsmen by Commissioner Bingham. The other patrolmen replaced on the list of roundsmen to-day were Edward J. Harrell, John Reardon, Charles B. Shonell, James Edwards, Charles Wilson and Albert L. Duffy.
